Gershaw Says Alberta Best Route For Highway

Alberta may soon witness the building of one of the world's strategic military highways, if current anticipations resolve into actions. Arrival of a U.S. army commission to study the proposed route to Alaska through Edmonton, Grande Prairie, Fort St. John, Fort Nelson, Whitehorse was simultaneous with Washington reports that President Roosevelt had declared the road an immediate necessity and that negotiations had been opened with Ottawa.

For a considerable time the Alberta Government has been pressing the advantages of the Inland Route to Alaska as the cheapest, fastest, easiest to be maintained of all four proposed. Now that official interest is aroused, Hon. W.A. Fallow is assembling information to present in an intensified effort to have the potentialities of the Alberta route appreciated. The American Commission in Edmonton is under instructions to make recommendations to Washington.

"In 1940 the Joint Defense Board said an Alaska highway was of no special interest. In 1941 they said it might be of long range advantage. Now, President Roosevelt has stated that the U.S.A. is 'not in a position to repel any and all attacks on Alaska.' More attention is now being given to a road east of the Rockies. This would seem to be the logical route, and if constructed would mean a lot to Alberta. The plan to have the road through British Columbia close to the Pacific Ocean is not talked of now. When it was planned it was to encourage tourists to visit the North land. If the road is to be a military highway to transport supplies to Alaska it would seem logical to build it east of the mountains in a more or less direct line from Chicago to Edmonton and then northward.

This is one of the projects that may need to be rapidly constructed as Alaska is being regarded as a great potential air base and a strategic point."

SECRET SESSION

Arrangements have been completed for the holding of a secret session of the House of Commons. It is assumed that the defense of the Pacific Coast and Atlantic coast will be discussed.

Leaders of the four Parties have decided on the details of arrangements, and even the date is not known.

CCF AMENDMENT DEFEATED

The C.C.F. amendment to the Speech from the Throne was defeated by a vote of 190 to 16. At once two Liberal French Members were on their feet, each wanting to offer another amendment. Both of these were strongly worded and condemned the Government for planning to make conscription a possibility. No one knows how much strength they will have but after the House closed, a bitter quarrel took place among the Quebec Members and feeling is certainly running high. A certain group seem to disregard altogether the seriousness of the war and do not wish the government to have a free hand in doing whatever they decide best to do toward making a maximum contribution to the cause of democracy.

Sincerely,
 F. W. Gershaw.

GEM NEWS

(By Our Correspondent)

The Gem Junior Red Cross during their last drive collected a sum of $28.65. Of this amount $18.50 was raised by the Girls Junior Red Cross, headed by Beverly Sandall on a raffle of a cushion. The boys raffled a box of chocolates that brought $6.45. The two primary rooms put on a short play that brought $3.70.

We are justly proud of our Gem Junior Red Cross, and we hope that they continue their good work. There are rumors that they plan on sponsoring a big dance possibly in the form of a masquerade in the near future to raise funds. Let's all give them a big hand.

The Gem U.F.A. members that lost in the membership drive gave a big supper Saturday evening followed by dancing and games.

During the evening, Mr. Galarnau as chairman presented the four oldest members Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Royer, Mr. Royer and Mr. Rumble each with a bouquet of flowers. Mr. Rumble gave a short talk on the organization of the U.F.A. in Gem which was enjoyed by all. Mr. Royer expressed thanks for the evening and some details in connection with the first delegates that attended from Gem. Mr. Royer was one of the first two delegates from our Gem Local.

Medicine Hat Defeats Bassano In Close Game

The Bassano Bearcats lost a 3-2 decision last Wednesday night to the Medicine Hat Hurricanes.

The game, though rough at times, was very fast and much brilliant hockey was displayed to the largest crowd of the season.

Lambert opened the scoring on a solo play that ended with him slipping the puck past Thompson in the Bassano cage.

In the second period Lambert again drove one past Thompson to make it 2-0 for the Gas City gang. The locals, however played good hockey although they missed two glorious chances.

In the third period a scramble in front of the net gave Bassano their first goal. A few minutes later, however, "Battling Bob", who was in a generous mood, gave the Hat their third goal, but to even things up he scored for the locals minutes later. Bassano pressed hard and had the Hat hemmed in behind their own line for most of the final session, but were unable to budge the hump again.

The Bassano boys deserve a great deal of credit for the brand of hockey they played on Wednesday night and possibly with the breaks the other way would have made the score read a lot different.

This was the second of a two-game series with the Hat in the Junior Playoffs. The Hat won the series 10-5. The Bassano team is therefore eliminated, but they are proud of the fact that they made such a good showing.

ALBERTA'S HOG INDUSTRY

Last year Alberta farmers marketed over 1,900,000 hogs, and the prospects are that out of every five hogs shipped to Britain from Canada this year two will be from Alberta.

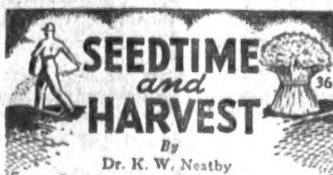

This statement was made by Dr. R.D. Sinclair, acting dean of the faculty of agriculture, University of Alberta, in an address given at the agricultural short course held in Calgary. He was discussing the subject, "What is wrong with Alberta feed grains?"

There really is nothing wrong with Alberta oats, barley, rye and wheat, Dr. Sinclair said. They are as good as can be produced anywhere. But pigs need supplemental feeds such as ground limestone, tankage, etc. in order to make the most economical use of the grain fed and to produce the most pork in the shortest time.

Hog raising is "big business" in Alberta now. Oats and barley are the standard pig feed, and wheat can be used in finishing rations up to 60 per cent with excellent results. This year there will possibly be 15 to 20 million bushels of wheat used in Alberta for hog feed.

Alberta farmers should aim at achieving the standard of quality attained by Denmark before the war, around 80 per cent of the Danish pigs grading A. It may be a little harder to reach that high percentage in this country where vigor in hogs is desirable, but a high quality must be maintained if the British market is to be held for Canadian bacon after the war.

Director, Agricultural Department
North-West Line Elevators Association
Seed Growers and Cereals

Twenty-eight varieties of wheat, oats, barley and flax are officially recommended in various parts of the prairie provinces. Eight of these are wheat, seven are oats, ten are barley, and three are flax.

The production of rust resistant varieties of wheat and oats, smooth awned barleys and wilt resistant flax varieties has done wonders in reducing the risks and hazards of cereal crop production. Six of the eight recommended varieties of wheat have been introduced within the last ten years. Two of the recommended oat varieties, six of barley, and all three flax varieties are similarly new.

For this achievement, plant breeders deserve all the credit they get, and more. But we are prone to forget an essential link between plant breeders and commercial producers; namely, the seed growers. Suppose we did not have the Canadian Seed Growers' Association and its provincial branches. Suppose, further, that the Dominion Government did not provide a field and seed inspection service through its Plant Products Division. Plant breeders could still develop new varieties and distribute them to farmers; but they would deteriorate so fast, largely through mixing, that our commercial crops would be a mess.

Seed growers are providing an absolutely essential service in maintaining supplies of pedigreed seed stocks, and they are doing a wonderful job for a very small material reward. If we are to maintain high standards of quality, this link between plant breeders and grain growers must not be weakened. Registered seed pays good dividends, particularly to the commercial grain grower. The seed grower's chief reward is pride in a job well done.

Want Farming Recognized

Recognition of agriculture's position as a war industry, with an adequate quota of skilled labor and sufficient income to pay for such labor and to maintain equipment was urged by the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, in the brief presented to the Federal Government at the conclusion of their annual meeting in Ottawa. Price levels for agricultural products should be based on prices prevailing at "some earlier period of comparative farm prosperity," it was declared. The Federation also deputed a committee to urge upon the Government the importance of maintaining the Farmers Creditors Arrangement Act.

Alberta Motor
Accident Report

There were 3,183 motor vehicle accidents in the province in which the damage to property exceeded $25, in the fiscal year which ended March 31, 1941, according to a report of the provincial secretary's department which has been tabled in the legislature.

In the previous year, there were 3,354 motor vehicle accidents but in 30 per cent of these the property damage in each was less than $50.

In the 1940-41 fiscal year, there were 68 fatal motor accidents in this province, compared with 62 in 1940, 72 in 1939, 55 in 1938 and 56 in 1937.

During the period covered by the report, 40 persons were sent to jail for being intoxicated while in charge of motor vehicles and 62 were given jail terms for reckless driving or other charges which involved a motor vehicle.

Officials of the Alberta Motor Association state that the figures on the number of motor accidents again stress the need of maintaining the campaigns in this province to bring about safer driving on the streets and highways.

Working on a new building, an Irishman shouted to his pal at the top "Hi, Bill, chuck me down a half dozen bricks".

Bill did so, and in due course the Irishman came panting up the ladder with his hod full.

"Tell me," said Bill, "why did you want me to chuck those bricks down?"

"Well," said the Irishman, "we're short of 'em down there, and I wanted to bring a full load up."

CURLING

OPEN BONSPIEL

The Bassano Open Bonspiel finished last week with most of the prizes going to other towns.

In the Deliveries Competition, Young of Bassano took first, Brown of Gleichen second, Kier of Cluny third, and Watt of mile fourth.

In the Calgary Power Competition, Marcey of Brooks placed first, Sommerville, of Cluny second, Simpson of Bassano third, and Young of Bassano fourth.

SQUARE DRAW

The square draw has been finished with the exception of one game which will be played later. Some of the games were very close there being no less than three 13 end games in one night. The top teams in the draw are, Simpson, Young and MacBeth, each team winning eight and losing two.

LOCAL BONSPIEL

The local bonspiel is now in progress, with about 17 teams in the competitions. Prize winners and details of the play will be carried in next weeks paper.

We hear that a certain curlier has thrown out a mean challenge to the rink that took in the Calgary bonspiel — the prize being of such large proportions leaves us wondering if the challenge has been taken up or whether it has backfired???

Canadians To Eat Spuds and Like It

"Canadians may have to change their eating habits ere long, as a consequence of the war in the Pacific, which has lost Canada 100 million pounds of vegetable oils annually," says J.T. Taggart, food administrator for the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

It isn't possible to make up this with animal fats, even if double the number of hogs were produced. Canada's highest production of lard has been 80 million pounds.

"Great Britain's loss is more than ten times as great, much of it went into the production of oleo margarine," says Mr. Taggart, who foresees the probable rationing of fats and oils, and an increased consumption of potatoes, bread and vegetables.

C.P.R. Subscribes $10 Million To Loan

According to information received on Wednesday of this week the Canadian Pacific Railways subscribed $10,000,000 to Canada's second Victory Loan.

A telegram received by the Recorder on Wednesday indicates the Loan well over the half-way mark with the cumulative total announced at that time of $361,909,050.

Naturally the majority of subscribers were individual although several were companies and one of the largest ones on Wednesday was that of the C.P.R.
